STATE OF NEBRASKA)

COUNTY OF DOUGLAS)

CATHY S. TRENT-VILIM, being duly sworn and upon her oath, deposes and states as follows:

1. I am an attorney duly licensed to practice law by the State of Nebraska and admitted to the practice of law in the State of Nebraska and before the United States District Court for the District of Nebraska.
2. I am counsel of record for Plaintiff, Veronica Valentine, and I am competent to give testimony. This affidavit is based upon my personal knowledge.
3. On October 10, 2017, Plaintiff served Defendants with Interrogatories (First Set) and Requests for Production of Documents (First Set). Attached as Attachment A and Attachment B are true and correct copies of Defendants Interrogatories to Defendants (First Set) and Requests for Production of Documents to Defendants (First Set).

4. The same day, Plaintiff filed a Notice of Service of the above-referenced discovery requests upon Defendants with the Clerk of Court (Filing No. 124). A true and correct copy of the Notice of Service is attached hereto as Attachment C.

5. Under the Federal Rules, Defendants' answers and objections to the discovery were due on or before November 9, 2017.

6. I did not receive any discovery responses from Defendants on or before November 9, 2017.

7. On November 10, 2017, I emailed Defendant's counsel, Timothy Himes ("Himes"), inquiring into the status of Defendants' discovery responses. A true and correct copy of my November 10, 2017, email is attached hereto as Attachment D.

8. I did not receive a response to the November 10 email.

9. On Monday, November 13, 2017, I attempted to reach Mr. Himes by phone. Unable to do so, I left him a voicemail.

10. On Tuesday, November 14, 2017, Mr. Himes returned my call. At that time, Mr. Himes indicated that he had three sets of discovery requests to answer and that Plaintiff's discovery was 'at the top of the pile.' Mr. Himes further indicated that he intended to provide responses by Friday, November 17.

11. Later that same day, I sent a letter to Himes confirming our call and his intent to provide discovery responses by Friday, November 17, 2017. A true and correct copy of the November 14, 2017, letter is attached hereto as Attachment E.

12. I did not receive Defendants' discovery responses on November 17, 2017. Instead, near the end of the business day Mr. Himes sent me an email indicating that he had "dictated responses. However, my Legal Assistant chose to remain home, today (shocker, I know). I hope to have responses to you early next week.” A true and correct copy of Mr. Himes’ November 17, 2017, email is attached hereto as Attachment F.

13. On November 18, 2017, I sent an email to Himes requesting status of the requested documents and whether they were already collated and ready to go. A true and correct copy of my November 18, 2017 email is attached hereto as Attachment G.

14. On November 21, 2017, I sent another email to Himes requesting the status of the responses. A true and correct copy of my November 21, 2017, email is attached hereto as Attachment H.

15. On November 22, 2017, Mr. Himes sent me an email stating, “While I apologize, (to you – not your clients (plural)) – I do not accept full responsibility for the delay. May I suggest we file a joint stipulation to extend some deadlines and continue the trial date?” A true and correct copy of Himes’ November 22, 2017, email is attached hereto as Attachment I.

16. On November 22, 2017, I sent an email to Himes stating that my client does not want to continue the trial date and requesting, again, when the discovery responses would be completed. A true and correct copy of my November 22, 2017, email is attached hereto as Attachment J.

17. Based on my communications with my client, I am aware of her wish that there be no further continuance of the trial date.

18. As of the time of this Affidavit, I have not received any further communications from Defendants; nor have I received Defendants’ discovery responses.

19. It will take time to review Defendants’ discovery responses (including the requested documents) and still prepare for and complete depositions within the existing December 29, 2017 deadline.

20. In my experience, scheduling depositions in the month of December is especially challenging due to the holiday season.

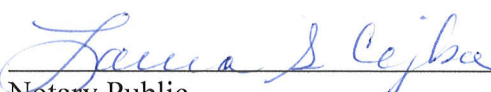

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NAUGHT.

Are the requested documents already collated and ready to go? I ordinarily wouldn't be so pushy, but the court's deadlines don't leave me any choice.

Tim:

I am following up on the responses to our discovery requests. The requests were served on October 10. Thirty days after service was yesterday, November 9. However, we have not received anything to date.

Unfortunately, with the short discovery period, I need to secure your clients' discovery responses as soon as possible. Can you please advise me as to the status?

Thank you,

Cathy

While I apologize, (to you - not your clients (plural)) - I do not accept full responsibility for the delay.

May I suggest we file a joint stipulation to extend some deadlines and continue the trial date?

My client does not want to continue the trial date, so any changes to the deadline will need to be done within the existing framework. What do you propose?

I am not sure what you mean by the comment about it responsibility, but when do you anticipate having the discovery completed?
